

BRANDY ISLAND DAY CARE CENTER
Baybay City, Leyte, Philippines

TURN-OVER PROGRAM OF BOOKS AND TOYS

A simple turn-over ceremony of books and stuff toys was done last February 5, 2007 at 9:00 AM to Brandy Island Day Care Center, Baybay City, Leyte, Philippines. The one-hour program was witnessed/participated by barangay councilor, community organizer agent, Day Care In-charged, 15 Day Care pre-schoolers and community people. What adds the turn-over more memorable was the poem acted by a male pre-schooler named Mark Castañas and the danced number participated by all pre-schoolers present during the ceremony. The kids innocently and joyfully danced the song entitled "Boom Tarat Tarat", sang and popularized by a TV host named Willie during the noon TV show at ABS-CBN. The opening of books and toys to students followed after hearing few lines from Moveon Philippines International representative and the signing of acknowledgment receipt. Happy faces were observed from kids, parents, teacher and all present during the turn-over. Even, a none pre-schoolers also wanted to see and scan some books on their own. Impressions were given by the Barangay councilor named Honorable Lolita Avelino and a community organizer agent named Prescila Latoreno with the same content sending their unlasting gratitudes to donors and to Moveon Philippines for the help extended to the center. Ms. Celestina Tac-al, Day Care In-Charged, promised a full blown utilization and safety pre-cautions to the donated materials. (Picture documentation follow)
